Divorce Court's Judge Lynn Toler returns to talk to Valder about the hot divorce topics of the day

Valder Beebe Show MORE THAN JUST GIRLFRIENDS

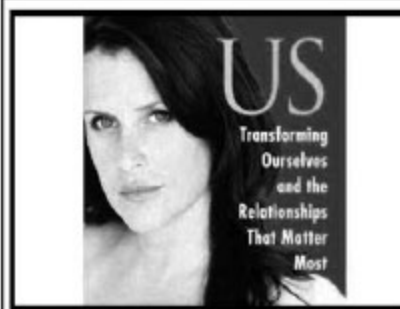

I am inspired by hearing, viewing and reading the stories of women who embraced having personal and collective power and used it for the greater good for themselves and for the planet. My favorite is Madam C. J. Walker, the first female entrepreneur to use the door-to-door sales method (previously only used by men). My newest hero is Carole Elizabeth Middleton, the mom of England's Kate Middleton. Carole has walked through pomp, pageantry and the media frenzy with grace, style and confidence alongside her daughter Katherine, now the Princess of Cambridge. I learned a lot from this successful entrepreneur for my daughters' one-day wedding. There are many women from the past to the future to admire; many will unfold as my life appears. For me, I choose to get strength from those personally in my life, and I thank you all for being so exceptional by being just who you are: Roberta Johnson, my 96-year-old aunt; my sister, Yada Cook; my mother, Valder Elizabeth; my daughter, Christian Elizabeth; and Gazelle Beebe, who taught me so much about being a loving person (and about her son). And those women who have inspired me along life's journey: Cheryl Toliver, for your loving metaphysical spirit and your giving; Ketrina Dauway, the most beautiful soul (and singer) I have met on my journey; and Sylvia Williams, it is just a delight to be your friend. And the many others along my journey, you know who you are, who have touched my life. Gratitude. Editorial Team, James & Valder Beebe

Congratulations Christian Elizabeth Beebe!

You have obtained your B.S. in Finance from the University of Texas at Arlington at 23 years of age. You have been a corporate employee since you were 18, now you move into your chosen field of study, the world of finance. You have accomplished so much; you have your solo apartment (no more sibling as a roommate) and you have had your own new car since the age of 18. You have planned, worked and accomplished all the things you have set before you and you did it only with GOD as your guide because we all things in you that you are loved, we are here for you and with GOD all things are possible, just believe. Your Dad and I, beyond saying, you are exceptional; we say you rock as you move toward your graduation day May 14th. We are proud, as you are the best of who we are. Love Mom & Dad.

Valder Beebe's montly Q&A With : New York Times & USA Today Bestselling Author, Francis Ray

Q: I Read in a quote, stating "that you want to tell the story of your people," what does that mean?

I don't think we're portrayed enough as intelligent, hard-working people who want the best for our children, the community, the country. We're good, honest people. The only way some people will ever "meet" an African-American is by reading about one. I receive mail from all over the world. I strive to make sure they read an accurate portrayal of my people.
